The easiest route to market data

FAST, COMPREHENSIVE AND EASY TO USE: MARKETMAP, A FULL SUITE OF INFORMATION TERMINALS

Everyday is a challenge to make the best trading and investment decisions in highly volatile and fast moving markets. You need access to in-depth, high-speed and accurate information, with the ability to conduct fast and reliable research, and all at a reasonable cost.

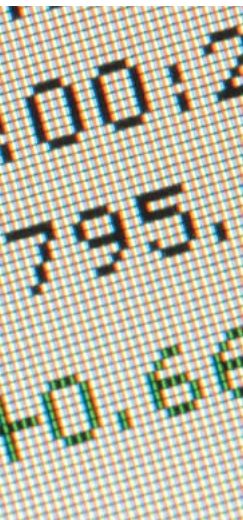

With our complete suite of MarketMap terminals and InfoLink APIs, you can access high quality market data, news and analysis from over 160 global exchanges and OTC sources. Easy to use and deployed in seconds, our ASP delivered information products include fully scalable, multi-asset based powerful tools that help you make the most informed decisions.

MarketMap Plus is our high tier terminal, designed to support traders in their price discovery and decision making process. The MarketMap Plus terminal offers enhanced capabilities, such as peer group lists for sector analysis, sophisticated calculators and user defined fields for scenario simulations and large data capacity for market wide performance comparisons and decision support.

SIGN ON TODAY FOR A SOLUTION ARCHITECTED FOR EFFICIENCY, RELIABILITY AND SCALABILITY

Deployed in seconds, our range of information terminals offers intuitive ease of use (the right mouse button gives quick access to all views) and is optimised for rapid navigation between multiple market views or workspaces. You can create, save and share user-defined layouts thanks to the personal workspaces functionality. You also benefit from SUNGARD Global Trading's global exchange connectivity network, with access to over 160 exchanges or OTC sources via GL Net.

For the specialist users we offer a broad range of competitively priced terminals such as: Forex Trader, Metals Professional, Energy Professional, Agri Professional.
